

WELCOME!

Founded in 1987, Sonoma Botanical Garden offers a unique woodland experience, blending the beauty of Asian and California native plants. Located in scenic Sonoma Valley on the site of a former quarry, the Garden spans 67 hilly acres, featuring an Asian woodland, a California oak savanna, and a Cabernet vineyard. Our mission is to inspire appreciation and understanding of these plants and promote their conservation.

LOCAL. REGIONAL. GLOBAL.

Your journey begins in our Cabernet Sauvignon vineyard, where you'll be welcomed by the lush, fertile landscape of Sonoma Valley. From there, wander through our native California oak savanna and woodland, which showcase the unique natural beauty of the state. Your adventure concludes in the Asian Garden, where rare and endangered plants offer a global glimpse into some of the vibrant ecosystems of the Pacific Rim. Each section of the Garden invites you to experience and appreciate the diverse and captivating world of plants.

THINGS TO DO

Explore over 3 miles of scenic paths through our unique woodlands with spectacular valley views and charming picnic spots. Enjoy seasonal blooms and color, visit our gift shop, and join guided tours or one of our many educational programs for all ages. Rotating art and nature exhibitions provide fresh and exciting ways to experience the Garden.

Tips for a Successful Garden Visit

The Garden, with its hilly terrain, offers both challenging hikes and more moderate strolls. The California Oaks Trail offers the easiest entry. Please note, due to the natural landscape of our historic quarry site, not all areas are fully accessible.

- * Bring water.
- * Wear sturdy, closed-toed shoes.
- * Please stay on the paths, and do not remove plant material.
- * Be mindful of uneven paths and slippery rocks.
- * Respect the wildlife (deer, squirrels, birds, bobcats, foxes, and rattlesnakes).
- * First aid kit available at the Welcome Center.
- * Restrooms are near the picnic area by the parking lot and in the Asian Garden near the Arbor.
